Railway Cottage

Patio: The passing NYMR steam trains provide great entertainment for children!

the North Yorkshire Moors Railway (NYMR) actually pass, and stop, in front of the lounge and master bedroom windows as they proceed at "snail's pace" past the adjacent level crossing/signal box! The line is privately and exclusively used by the NYMR (so please note that there are no fast main line trains!) - recently Goathland station was featured as Hogsmeade in Harry Potter!

The cottage is situated within a small, quiet hamlet, and yet benefits from being within only 15 minutes easy walking distance of the market town of Pickering, with its supermarkets, shops, traditional pubs, wide choice of restaurants and, of course, famous steam railway station

Railway Cottage sleeps 4/5 people and is located at Newbridge (nr. Pickering), the gateway to the stunning North Yorkshire Moors National Park.

Newly restored in 2009, this comfortable, former railway workers cottage will appeal to steam railway enthusiasts, walkers and families alike - the majestic steam locomotives of

The Cottage

Sleeping accommodation comprises 2 bedrooms - 1 double (that can be converted to a twin with full size single beds) and 1 twin with full (adult) size bunks. The master bedroom gives an excellent view of the passing steam trains, but these run no earlier than 09.00am, and no later than 19.30pm in the Summer season!. There is a double sprung sofa-bed in the lounge that can also be used, subject to prior agreement, to accommodate an additional guest.

The kitchen is newly fitted, with washing machine, gas oven & hobs, microwave and fridge/freezer.

The bathroom has a corner-bath, overhead shower, basin and toilet.

The lounge/dining room provides a "front-row" view of the passing trains as well as the nearby signal box and

Master Bedroom

The property is semi-detached and located in a small hamlet, surrounded by the stunning countryside of the North Yorkshire Moors National Park which provides excellent walking. The cottage has its own parking spaces for two vehicles, and a private enclosed patio area with BBQ for alfresco dining. At the rear of the cottage, a wooden
